- Use your life experience to help others
- Offer advice to younger generations
- Foster inter-generational dialogue
- Participate on your own time and pace

Members of the Elder Wisdom Circle are seniors aged 60 and over who enjoy sharing their wisdom with young advice seekers from across the world.

Via the Internet, Elders answer advice letters at their own convenience from their home computer. Elders offer young people personalized, free advice on a wide range of topics, such as love and relationships, family and child-rearing, and career and self-improvement.

Please consider joining the hundreds of computer savvy seniors who participate in this noble cause. Go to www.ElderWisdomCircle.org and then click Offer Advice for details.

"It is heartening to know that when young people seek sage advice these days, many are turning to the Elder Wisdom Circle. I continue to be impressed by the candor and insight of these Elders." – Walter Cronkite (1916-2009)

"I felt so grateful for your advice, and it made me feel more connected and hopeful in humanity... I had nowhere else to turn, and I think in my own way I found a guardian Angel that I never used to believe in." – Anonymous Advice Seeker

"Where else could I be of service without leaving home and without being tied down to a service position with a regular schedule? This is a terrific service organization to support." – Elder

- Belong to one of the most popular advice services on the Internet
